

24 Talk Ideas for All-Age Services

- Talks designed to catch people's attention through familiar, everyday objects.
- Talks that are accessible for those of all ages and suitable for people who are not regular churchgoers.
- Talks that engage people and simply but effectively communicate an important message.
- Talks that were originally created for all-age family services and baptismal services but can effectively be used in a whole range of contexts.

Author: John Wright

Price: £7.99

Q: What have I got here?

A: You've got a book containing 24 talk ideas.

- Talks designed to catch people's attention through familiar, everyday objects.
- Talks that are accessible for those of all ages and suitable for people who are not regular churchgoers.
- Talks that engage people and simply but effectively communicate an important message.
- Talks that were originally created for all-age family services and baptismal services but can effectively be used in a whole range of contexts.

At the moment it's a rather smart looking book, but if purchased don't expect it to look like that for long, because this book could quickly become one of the most used books in your collection!

Author: John Wright

Price: £7.99