

How to find us

We are conveniently located on Church Street, which runs between St. Catherine's Church (look for the tall steeple) and a multi-storey car park. Our bookshop is located across the street and just down the hill toward Market Street. The new car park is scheduled to open in February 2008 and you may also find space in several other nearby "pay and display" car parks: one located above the main Pontypridd bus station (aka "Goods Yard" car park) or the Sardis Road car park.
